.. of ..

John R. Rogers High School

Spokane, Washington

Dedication

All effort in this book is earnestly dedicated to that hard fighting Pirate eleven, and their Coach, M. J. Benjamin, who at all times displayed the qualities that make champions.

Foreword

In publishing the 1935 "Treasure Chest" we have tried above all to be impartial, portraying the school's numerous activities so as to foster friendship and unity among the student body of John R. Rogers High School.

If, in reviewing its pages, you revive pleasant memories, or smile in recollection of happy experiences, the staff will then feel it has been well repaid for all time spent in the publication of this book.

January Class History

Four long years ago, 118 green freshmen entered the old Hillyard high school. They were so shy and reserved. Gradually the greenness wore off and the surroundings became familiar to them. Something more than the average talent was in that group.

That first year, the moulding period, was the hardest. A great change came also. The surroundings were changed to a new and much more impressive structure, John R. Rogers.

Now they were sophomores and felt their responsibility for leadership. Gradually the lads and lassies took over the overwhelming task of showing their underclass admirers the way of right, and nobly did they succeed.

Athletics caught the eye of many a lad and they longed for the day when they could hoist the purple and white high over the city.

Another year passed and those sophomores had advanced, respected by all, shining lights in athletics, dramatics, and all school activities.

Hopes of reaching the city throne in football had just been missed and now the dream of that conquest came true. These seniors had won the top in the city football world. All-city honors were bestowed upon Jack Ramey, Mike Perry, Ted Dawson, Steve Tortorelli, and Dodge Dean. Basketball honors were upheld by Jack Ramey; baseball, Thurman Cook; tennis and golf by Bob Murphy and Roybert Hanneman.

The girls showed real ability in dramatics, journalism and school leadership with such figures as Carne Haugan, Helen Renfro, and Ulonde Perry, president of the Girls' League.

Scholarship in this worthy class has been very high with 28 having an average over 90%. The scholastic leaders were: Valedictorian, Frances Cowles; and salutatorian, Delnore Hopkins.

At last we have come to the haven of learning with these able leaders at the helm of our good ship:

President, Paul Hanneman; vice president, Lawrence Northquist; secretary-treasurer, Leo Haynes; and student council, Helen Renfro. Our leaders for the entire voyage were:

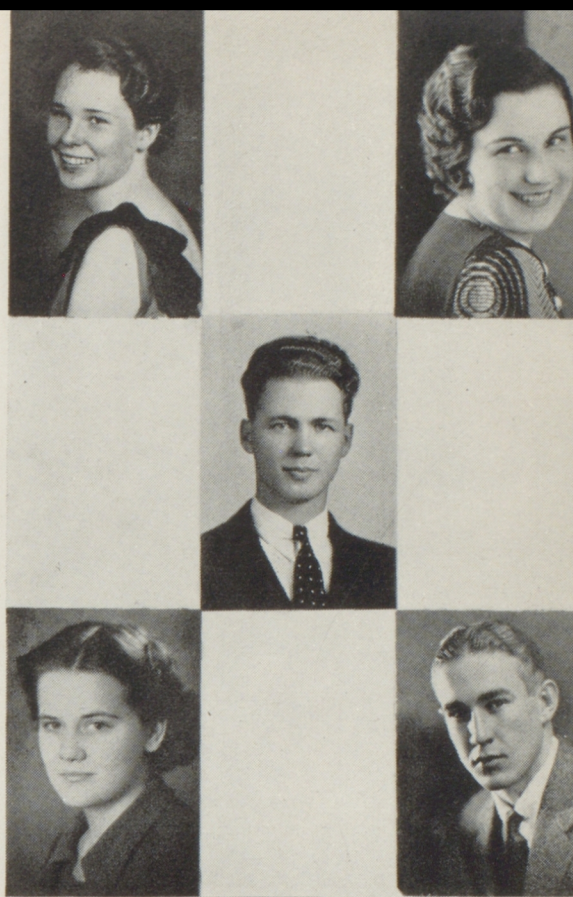

9B	Bob Murphy
9A	Bob Murphy
10B	Louis Cameron
10A	Paul Ewing
11B	Della Hinshaw
11A	Marjorie Hamaker
12B	Bob Murphy
12A	Paul Hanneman

Class vice presidents were as follows: 9B, Louis Cameron; 9A, Lex Templin; 10B, Paul Ewing; 10A, Dodge Dean; 11B, Eugene Richardson; 11A, Paul Hanneman; 12B, Bob Gregson; 12A, Laurence Northquist.

Those who held positions of secretary and treasurer were: 9B, Dodge Dean; 9A, Dorothy Ahlin; 10B, Lawrence Northquist; 10A, Maud Thorson; 11B, Ewing Irwin; 11A, Elvira Glendening; 12B, Carne Haugan; 12A, Leo Haynes.

Yell leaders were as follows: 9A, Jack Ramey; 10B, Eugene Richardson; 10A, Jack Ramey; 11B, Lex Templin; 11A, Taylor Richard; 12B, Jack Ramey.

January Class Prophecy

In the year of 1944 I was standing near a New York subway when a great producer approached me and said, "I am thinking of producing a great picture called "The Revival of the John R. Rogers Class of January, 1934." After choking back a cry of surprise I agreed to help him find all the members of our graduating class.

My search took me first to the Woolworth Building where I found Geneva Johnston and Bertha Kelley doing a fine job of demonstrating kid-curlers. Virginia Gassow and Margaret Guler were doing an equally efficient job in the "pots and pans" division.

Feeling a bit hungry I dropped into a small lunchroom for a bite to eat and there demanding a "big feed" was Chuck Tortorelli. When the waiters came to take our orders we found them to be Myrtle Valsvig and Jean Stipe. We were all enjoying ourselves when a reporter on "The New York Sun," came in. He was anxious for me to "meet some of the boys," so after eating I accompanied him back to the office.

I heard a voice behind me say, "Hiya!" and turning around I saw Roybert Hanne-man, sports editor and Carne Haugan, humorist. At a desk near the wall sat a man with a sad, soulful look in his eye.

"Who's that man? I asked, "He looks familiar."

"Oh," they all answered, "that's Jerry Mix, our sob sister."

Next I visited "The Biltmore," where I found Frances Cowles, head of the Regal Association of Penwomen. Her loyal followers included Ann Dillon, Vera Chase, Nellie Pilik, and Lucy Miller. In a fine upper suite I found Helen Jean Merchant and her maid, Bessie Ray. Della Hinshaw and Dorothy Frost proved to be splendid elevator operators. Ulonda Perry seemed wholly devoted to her "Pomeranian poodle." At the hotel beauty salon Marie Yarroll gave me a shampoo, while Vern Claflin did a good job of shining my shoes. Wallace McCaughey and Anson McDirmid were acting as ornaments by the door, brass buttons 'n' everything.

Broadway had offered me all the old friends she could, so I decided to go "out West" and see what I could see.

Dodge Dean was pilot of the plane I took from New York to Chicago, and Frieda McGee and Eleanor Mantello proved to be charming air hostesses. When I reached Chicago, Orvial Mercer escorted me to a taxi, driven by Carl Moberly, while Bob Murphy ran alongside trying to convince me that I should buy a typewriter.

From Chicago I decided to ride the train, and Bob Gregson was the engineer. Stephen Piper and Karl Peterson were the brakeman and conductor respectively.

In the diner I met Helen Renfro telling Jack Ramey how a paper should be run. Jack didn't seem to mind, perhaps he was used to it—(ahem)! Fern Swanson interrupted our threesome. She explained to us that she was the owner of a big cattle farm in Montana. She suggested that I accompany her home and I accepted.

At Helena we came upon Steve Tortorelli still wondering what happened to the train. Paul Ewing was standing near the depot, a woe begone expression on his face, because his pet snake had just died, therefore he mourned for his loss. When we reached the house we were greeted by Clark Williams and Don Whittaker. In the distance I heard a great commotion but found that it was only Duane Waldron singing the "Cowboy's Lament." Ted Dawson put an end to his cries with a bucket of cold water. Bob Johnston and Wendell Kelley came riding up on a couple of 1914 horses, singing "Get Along Little Doggie, Get Along."

Leo Haynes and Albert Hallstein rode over from the adjoining Ranch to join in the "Whoopie."

On the way back to the station I saw Mike Shanks and Sam Sicilia holding up a desert cactus.

The trip to Spokane was quite uneventful. When I reached home I decided to visit John R. Rogers High School. There, to my great amazement I found Anna Marie Weber teaching Spanish, while Lawrence Warner and Norman Valsvig were doing a splendid job at heckling the English students. Eleanor Thomas was a chemistry teacher of first rank, while Don Tesdahl is football coach.

Edna Scott is doing a fine job as cook in the cafeteria, while Bill Rubright, Ernest

June Class History

That old phrase, "Now in the old building—," will become extinct with the graduation of the seniors, in June 1935 for they are the last of the old guard of Panther-Pirates.

In September '31 about 175 newcomers attempted to draw maps of the extensive labyrinth called Hillyard high school. A large number of the group tried out for the Junior Dramatic club while most of the boys donned green shirts and showed what it took to make a Frosh football team. The class also had the greatest number of honor members, a feat which they have repeated several times since.

On February 4, they crowded into the hanging garden of the auditorium of Rogers high school and joyously applauded as the new building was formally dedicated. Continuing their activity, these busy Frosh sweated and labored on the athletic field on which, three years later, many of their associates would carry the pigskin, chuck the ol' apple or hurl the weight to bring glory to their alma mater.

Tossing off the Panther skin and garbing themselves in the flashing colors of the Buckaroos, the stalwart sophomore lads hit out to make their fortune, and after two battling years, they met success.

By the time another year had rolled around, these active workers were sharing with the mighty seniors; in fact, most of the boys had laid aside their last pair of knickers while the lassies found hair ribbons to be a passing fancy. Their time had come, and they made the best of it in all lines of endeavor; athletic, dramatics, club work and journalism.

Now they are at the top of the ladder, and their goal is reached. Now they rule their dominion with a kind and stern hand. They have been instrumental in putting Rogers on the map and helped to create a spirit of friendliness and cooperation, both here and with other schools.

However, they are not through. Their work has just begun. Never will they forget or regret their experience here when they spread that spirit throughout the business and professional world.

The presidents who took the helm in guiding the old ship '35 through the turbulent

June Class Will

We, the Senior Class, with misgivings, part with our treasured possessions, willing them with deepest sympathy to our toiling friends of the lower grades.

Roy Anderson wills his "Hollywood" style hair combing to "little" Bobby Dunn. Walter Anderson leaves a worn out track shoe to John Nelson. Jack Artman, "that cute kid," wills his empty pocket to Alma Tiffany. Alice Barnes wills her shoe buttons to anyone who needs "buttoning" up. LaVerne Barth leaves that Rudy Vallee voice to all the Juniors. Wilma Bateman wills her "sweet sixteen and never been kissed look" to Lucille Forshee. Dorothy Bates gives her "borrowed" pencils to Blanche Shiosaki. Dick Beaumont leaves his swanky neckwear to Bill Campbell.

Geraldine Bell leaves her empty gum wrappers to Dorothy Flanders. Gertrude Benish leaves whatever she doesn't want to anyone who wants anything not worth much. Margaret Bergersen wills her ability to "ditch the boy friend" to Sarah Fjelstad. John Bergman leaves his xylophone for Bill Strong to play way down ya're.

Arlene Blair leaves her toothpick to Helen McCreary. Stella Blancher wills her last year's Almanac to Betty Cowan. Clint Brown leaves his innocent (?) youthfulness to Albert Poffenroth. Bertha Bunnell wills her left eyebrow to Mildred French. Bob Campbell leaves his swagger to Bill Pritchard.

Rollie Cantley wills his silence to that whispering freshman in the study hall. Richard Cass leaves his deficiency slips to Charles McHarness. Virginia Chambers wills her "College Rhythm" to Ronald Bithell. Art Charles leaves his last peanut to Eddie Judge. Wanda Clarkston wills her rusty alarm clock to Dorothy Ruark. (Always on the Dot). John Collins will his A grades to Arnold Metzger. Thea Mae Culverwell leaves her loud speaker to Georgia Cook.

Maxine Cumming wills her "Cumming" ways to Wanda Wilbert. Bob De La Grange leaves his ability to draw to Beatrice Johnston. (It's nice to have a line, isn't it?) Monroe Denman leaves his stage braces to Carol Vermillion. Ellen Mae Dickover leaves her cooking (or is it burning) technique to Toby Smith. John Dillon returns everything he has borrowed from Keith Campbell. (Get a van, Keith). Earl Douglas leaves his unlearned alphabet to Charles Evans.

Guy Edmonson leaves a paddle with a nail in it to Hugh Huneywell. Bob Epler will his tack to Jack Slocum. (Get the point, Jack?) Charles Erickson wills his sling-shot to Bob Foley. Ralph Ficca leaves his awful daze to Gene Tesdahl. Louis Fjelstad wills his ability to out-argue the teachers to the debaters. Lyle Forgey leaves his backyard baseball coaching to Wilder Peterson. Betty Foster leaves her broken baby chair to Ed Aune.

Crystal Frank wills her "Frankness" to Billie Jean Wagner. Philip Frank's jaw-breakers go to Fanny Farro. Henry Freeman gives his managing ability to Bob Zat. (is Zat so!) Gene Garst wills his old shoe strings to Harold Hubbard. Alberta Gayda wills her teething ring to Anna Bell Peers. Roger Gilbert leaves his ear muffs to Robert Lane. Frank Gilliam wills his right to tease the fair sex to Bill Diedrick. Gordon Goodman leaves his profile to James Carlson. Gladys Granberg leaves her smile to Anita Hinshaw. Max Gray wills his monkey business to Walter Peer.

Willis Grimm leaves his future home to Harold Stokke. Hazel Gumm leaves her last year's calendar to Hazel Welsh. Ross Gumm wills his "stars and garters" to John Ortnier. Margaret Harruff wills her bow and arrow to Verne Gillespie. Mabel Haynes wills her love for dumb animals to Helen Felber.

La June Hearn wills her liking for the cadets to her sister, Norma. Anita Henderson wills her diving ability to Caroline Tortorelli. Lillian Hobbs leaves her baby blanket to Nellie Betts. Anna Hollander wills her "Sweet" place at the candy counter to Helen Chilberg.

Kathryn Holland leaves her pencil stubs to Bert Akins. Seth Huneywell leaves his well-chewed match to Reg McDavis. Jim Hurd leaves his "hurd-ling" to Frank Benish. Kenny Huss wills his chewing gum to Ray Dillon. Eloise Hutchison leaves her candy bar to all the people that gave her "bites." Franklin Jaynes wills his Italian acting and his sideburns to Max Lemon. Amy Johnston wills her key hole peeking to Edythe Colony. Barbara Johnston wills her dancing feet to Char-

Every girl in school belongs to the Girls' League, making it one of the most important organizations in the school.

The purpose of the League is to settle any problem that may confront the girls, and to promote friendship and interest between each girl in the school.

The Council is made up of the Girls' League officers, the departmental chairmen and their assistants. The League is divided into four departments, each having different subdivisions. This is done to make the work more effective and to give each girl an equal opportunity to work for the League.

The Social Service department is one of the most active of the departments. Its main subdivision is the Big and Little Sisters. This group has charge of the freshmen and new girls who enter the school each semester. The Big Sister shows her Little Sister around the school and helps her with her studies, if there is such a need. A party is given each semester for the Little Sisters to help them to get acquainted with other girls of the school.

The Christmas Committee collects food and presents for the needy in our own district. Other committees are the Thanksgiving, courtesy, tutoring, and sewing.

Miss Elizabeth Herbert is the faculty adviser assisted by Naomi Pershall, chairman for the first semester and Betty Massie, the second.

The Entertainment group is an outstanding group, as it provides for the entertainment at the Girls' League general and departmental meetings. They are the sponsors of an annual Christmas program and provide entertainment for the Big and Little Sister party. The subdivisions of this department are music, singing, poster, invitation, and dancing. Miss Theodora Budwin is the faculty adviser. Wilma Bateman was chairman the first semester and Lelia Jones, second semester.

The School Welfare department renders services to the school. This is done by the various committees some of which work in the nurse's office. The girls help the school nurse on the days that she is here. The Scrap Book committee compiles the newspaper clippings concerning the school. Other committees are: Honor roll, entertainment, hall patrol, office, and handkerchief.

The largest department, which claims over 100 in its membership, is the Sports department. This department promotes a greater interest in sports and health throughout the League.

The different sub-divisions are: Handy Andy, hiking, gym office, poster, games, and weighing and measuring.

The two chairmen for the year were Della Hinshaw, first semester, and Alice Barnes, second semester.

The purpose of the 9B department, under the supervision of Miss Rose Finnegan, is to give the incoming girls a better chance to become acquainted with the standards and the functions of the League. One of the principal projects is the tea given mothers. In this way the mothers meet the teachers of the school.

Each class room elects a girl room representative to collect League dues and to obtain meeting notices.

The Boys' Federation was first organized in the old Hillyard High in May, 1927. Its purpose is to encourage leadership and to foster social and scholastic activities.

One of the important functions of the Federation is securing speakers of outstanding merit to talk on subjects which will aid the boys in becoming acquainted with different phases of business and the professions.

The Boys' Federation takes active part in Christmas activities and stages the "Dads' Night Mixer," held annually.

The first semester committees were: Executive Committee: Roybert Hanneman, Chairman, Louis Cameron, Bob Gregson, Paul Ewing, Seth Huneywell, Wendell Kelley, and Leo Haynes.

Upper-class Advisory Committee: Lynn Drake, Paul Hanneman, Seth Huneywell, Leo Haynes, Woodrow Pfeffer, Bob Gregson, Paul Ewing, Louis Cameron, Lex Templin, and Bob Murphy. Freshman Patrol: Arthur Mackey, Chairman, Marion Dennis, Eugene Balch, Evert Bowers, Kendall Ryan, and Donald Moss. Fire Squad: Leo Haynes, Chief, Ted Dawson, James Carlson, Bob Gregson, Steve Tortorelli, Paul Ewing, Kenneth Wallace, Dodge Dean, Mike Perry, Harvey Taylor, Art Anderson, Jerry Carson, Duane Waldron, Lex Templin, Bob Murphy, Louis Cameron, Dick Beaumont, and Chuck Tortorelli.

Membership in the Rogers Service Club is based primarily upon service to the school. The club was organized in 1927 for the purpose of giving honor for services to the school. There are no officers. The students who render unrecognized service to the school are honored by membership to the Rogers Service club. New members are recommended by the faculty.

Felt emblems are the awards, and are given out at the semi-annual awards convocation.

The Art Club is one of the most unusual clubs in Rogers High School. It has done splendid work making posters for departments and other clubs during the school year. They also did a very good job in making Pirate stickers and felt heads. A party was held by the Art Club on November second at Hava Long's cabin at Newman Lake.

The aim of the club is to promote general interest in art, and to teach its members to appreciate all outstanding work in the field of art. One of the club's minor activities is presenting an annual pay convocation. The club was the local sponsor of the Marionette Show held at Lewis and Clark this spring.

The Cosmic club was organized by Mr. Minzel and Mr. Saltz of the Science Department in 1933. The object of the club is to promote interest in different branches of science and to give those who are interested in this line a chance to further their knowledge. Talks and demonstrations are given by the club members at meetings and the club visits many places of scientific interest.

During the last semester the club visited the Millwood Paper Plant and The Washington Water Power. Several interesting speakers entertained the club members with interesting talks. They were Mr. Keiser of the Spokane Weather Bureau and Reverend Freeman who illustrated his speech on Sumatra with slides.

Since November, 1931, the French club has been establishing a closer relationship between the United States and France, and making Rogers High School known to all.

This is accomplished by the annual exchange of scrap books with various French schools. A beautiful scrapbook was received by the club from the College de Jeunes Felles (College of young girls) at Fe camp, France.

The membership is composed of students who have had at least one year of French. Meetings are held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month.

Under the direction of Mrs. Marie Bovee, members of the German classes organized a club in an effort to create a deeper interest in the language. Correspondence with students of German schools furnishes a great deal of entertainment and also is of educational value to members of the club.

Two meetings are held each month; one a business meeting, the other a program. The club has several parties during the course of the semester.

Interest in girls' athletics at Rogers has increased steadily since the founding of the Girls' Athletic Club in the fall of 1928. The aim of the club is to promote sportsmanship among the girls and interest in the various sports. A girl must earn 350 G. L. points to be eligible for membership.

Fifty points are awarded for each major sport: Volleyball, baseball, and basketball; and 25 points for tennis and tumbling.

One of the most active clubs in school is the Harding Debate Club, which was organized on November 3, 1923. This club assisted in the organization of the National Honor Society.

Every year a banquet is given to honor the debate squad and the coach. An exceptionally different con was given in November; it received much praise. The Harding Debate club is sponsor of the inter-class debates which are adding many to the rolls of debate enthusiasts.

Each year at Thanksgiving time, the members of the club make cookies and send boxes to the Shrine Hospital, St. Joseph's Home, and The Samaritan Home of the Aged. They also honor the faculty members with a tea each year.

The purpose of the club is to promote interest in home economics work. Girls who have been enrolled in foods or clothing classes are eligible for membership.

The Las Gitanas Club has been recently organized to promote interest in outdoor sports. It now has a large and active membership and is rapidly increasing in number. Its members devote their club entertainment to hiking, camping and other outdoor sports.

Recreational outings have been held at various points of interest in the Inland Empire. They hold play hours in the cafeteria and have had several speakers who talked to them about the sports of other lands. The club semi-annually holds a party which usually consists of a buffet supper and initiation of new members.

This club differs from other clubs in that it has no officers. At each meeting a "leader" is appointed. Mr. Black, the club adviser, organized the club for boys interested in out-of-doors. Much of their time is spent in hiking and going on lake trips.

Last year trips were planned for Mount Spokane but due to the warm winter they were not carried out. This year many trips were taken, outstanding being the one to Mount Spokane just after Christmas vacation. This trip was enjoyed very much by the boys of the club and many interesting pictures were taken of the mountain and club members.

All members wear the official grey shirt and emblem at the official meetings of the club.

Membership to this club is limited to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. To gain membership one must obtain three fourths of the votes of the voting members.

This club has attracted much attention because of its many novel features. On each trip interesting nature studies, hiking, camping, fishing, and all kinds of out door recreation are the main subjects of discussion.

Quill and Scroll, a national society for high school journalists, was first organized at the old Hillyard high school in 1927. Hillyard high school was the first Spokane high school to install a chapter.

The requirements of membership in this society are: First, the candidate must be a junior or a senior, must show marked ability in writing, editing, or business management of any of the school publications.

Each semester all those who wish to join may submit experience and stories to the national secretary at the headquarters in Chicago. Membership in Quill and Scroll is one of the highest of national recognitions for high school journalists.

The “R” club consists of all the students who have won their letters in athletics. It was first organized at the Hillyard High school and known as the “H” club. The name was changed when the Hillyard high school became Rogers.

No activities were held last fall as the boys were occupied with football. This spring the club continued their annual stage successes by putting on a 45 minute pay convocation. The members of the organization are boosters of all forms of athletics.

By winning five of the six games in the 1934 city series, the Pirate gridders last fall emerged at the top of the football ladder with the title of City Champions firmly in their grasp.* Playing through a hard nine-game season, the Rogers team won all of their non-conference games, as well. Coach Benjamin, who resigned as head football coach at the end of the season, to devote his full time to his position as Director of Boys' Physical Education and Athletics, climaxed his career as head coach for the past five years with the most successful football season in the history of the school.

WEST VALLEY GAME

Rogers started out the football season with a bang by swamping the West Valley football squad 40-0. Rogers used straight football and displayed unlimited amount of power. Coach Benjamin's purple-clad warriors showed themselves superior in every phase of the game. The Pirate coach used every player on the bench and his team scored almost at will.

FIRST LEWIS AND CLARK GAME

In a clean, hard-fought game, Rogers opened the city series by defeating Lewis and Clark on Rogers playfield by the score of 19-0. The first touchdown was made on a pass from Poffenroth to Perry early in the second quarter. Perry booted the extra point and the score stood 7-0 at the half. In the second half Poffenroth, after faking a pass, ran 76 yards for a touchdown. In the final canto Johnston made a touchdown on a beautifully executed end-around play. For Rogers, Ramey, Perry, Johnston, Poffenroth, and Steve Tortorelli played brilliant football. For Lewis and Clark Uprichard and Evanoff were the mainstays.

FIRST NORTH CENTRAL GAME

Rogers won its second game of the city high school series on its own field in a wildly contested game with North Central, the game being played by two almost evenly matched teams. In the first few minutes of the game, Clint Brown and Perry smashed their way to a touchdown and Perry kicked the extra point. Rogers made many other threats but always lost the ball because of fumbles and stubborn Redskin resistance. In the fourth quarter, Jaremko of North Central attempted three times to reach pay dirt but each time the Rogers forward wall held. On the fourth try, Jaremko slid off tackle for the score. The conversion failed and the score stood 7-6. The Indians made a desperate attempt for a field goal in the dying moments of the game but failed, and the game ended in Rogers' favor.

For Rogers, Ramey, Johnston, Perry, Waldron, and Brown shone. For N. C. Haberman, Contos, and Jaremko were outstanding.

FIRST GONZAGA GAME

Growing stronger with every thrust, Rogers' Pirates downed the fighting Gonzaga Bullpups 7-0 on Rogers' field. The first quarter was a nip and tuck battle, and the second was a punting duel with Ramey of Rogers having the advantage. The third quarter saw Rogers gaining strength, and the fourth quarter resulted in pushing over a touchdown on a beautifully executed fake-pass play with Poffenroth carrying the ball. Perry kicked the extra point. Ramey's punting for Rogers was superb, and Johnston, Perry, Nelson and Poffenroth played a fine game. For Gonzaga, Gatton, and Blackbird played fine ball.

SECOND LEWIS AND CLARK GAME

Repeating an early season triumph by the same margin, Rogers Pirates crushed a snarling and scrappy Lewis and Clark Tiger at Hart field to the tune of 19-0. The first touchdown was obtained when Lavender blocked a punt and Steve Tortorelli recovered it for a touchdown. The Pirate line played fine ball with Steve Tortorelli, Nelson, Waldron, and Dean outstanding. In the backfield,

In mentioning the most thrilling games, the first Lewis and Clark tangle should be named. The game right from the start was a fast and hard checking game. Both teams battled through the first half with a zig zag score with L. C. and Rogers scoring alternately.

At the start of the third quarter, things began to pop. Men on both sides were tired and nervous. All through the fourth quarter the two teams still see-sawed back and fourth until the gun barked ending with both teams tied. In the overtime period neither school could make the basket until, with one second to go, Newell Priess, tall, rangy Tiger center, turned and took a one hand shot which fell through the net just as the gun barked. This helped give L. C. the highest numerical average in the city standings.

The second game with North Central was one of the fastest city prep games of the season. From the start the purple and white cagers buckled down to business against the Indians, for the Pirates were tied with N. C. and a win would put them in second place. Rogers was now against a fast attack which they seemed to be stopping. Rogers led throughout the game by a narrow margin but in the closing minutes the Indians managed to swish a basket to win a hard-fought, evenly-matched contest.

At the start of a successful season, Rogers was handicapped for half a season by the temporary loss of Clint Brown. Although Clint got a late start he ended high in city scoring and constantly played good ball.

As the second half of the series started Rogers was fortunate to get Clint Brown back into the lineup but this was partially equalized by the graduation of Jack Ramey.

Jim Hurd, hardly known at the start of the season, showed steady improvement and finished a great season.

Again a new man was found in Al Lavender, who was an aggressive player with great

In the Spokane city high schools, a keen interest was taken this year in baseball, both by boys and girls, as shown by the increasing attendance at games.

The Rogers baseball team was handicapped at the first of the season by the loss of such players as Elsworth Stokke, Bob Campbell, Thurman Cook, and Carl Lewis but lots of spirit prevailed on this year's squad. This spirit and the squad's desire to play baseball aided in rounding out an excellent squad. The lettermen that returned this year were Mike Perry, Joe Karle, Al Stokke, Jim Hurd, and Jack Whitney.

Girls' Squad

Virginia Storm, Lucille Forshee, LaRayne Coulson, Dolly McGrath, Jerry Ambrose, Betty Massie, Pat Saltz, Marjorie Harris, Alice Barnes, Eloise Merklin, Amelia Candelero, Edna Bruce, Annabel Henry, Norma Hearn, Vida Pinkerton.

Three additional concrete tennis courts constructed this spring gave the Rogers racket wielders their greatest boost to date. These courts will provide more room for aspirants to tennis honors to practice on during the summer season.

For the spring season of '35 four lettermen of the boys' team returned. The veterans were Max Gray, Orville Shenefelt, Arlo Swenson, and Elwood Amsbury. These men were all pressed very hard for their jobs.

The returning girls from the girls' teams were Virginia Storm, LaRayne Coulson, and Lucille Forshee. Some of these feminine aspirants to the squad were able to give the members of the opposite sex a very hard battle in a match.

"This year's squad was much stronger than that of last," stated L. W. Saltz, coach. "Fine showings and constant improvement helped to make the strongest team for several years."

Freshman Sports

TRACK

Jack Mooberry, Coach

Frosh tracksters are under the direction of J. W. Mooberry. They meet frosh teams from other city high schools and also the junior high schools.

The freshmen in the past have made a very good showing against any competition put up against them. This year's varsity team shows clearly the value of freshman track because it is mainly made up of sophomores who started as freshmen.

BASKETBALL

Jack Mooberry, Coach

The Pirate Freshman basketball squad tied with Lewis and Clark for the city championship. They played stellar ball all season and really deserved their high standing.

At the start of the season they were regarded as too small to function well but despite this, came to the top rapidly. Each player on the squad had his turn as high-point man in at least one city game. The games they played were all fast and exciting, but the final outcome was always their way.

The boys taking part in the frosh team were: Don McDavis, Bob Bland, Paul McCulloch, Glen Carter, Frank Akins, Gilbert Miller, Jack Leavitt, Dick Liberty, Donald Innes, Jerry McGuire, and Eugene Balch.

FOOTBALL

Rogers freshman football squad ended a very successful season of football with possession of the city championship.

Nineteen members of the squad received numerals. They are: Frank Akins, captain, Sam Tortorelli, Dick Liberty, Ken Stansbury, Jack Leavitt, Al Tortorelli, Glen Carter, Don Innes, Bob Bland, Paul McCulloch, Don McDavis, Howard Pratt, Lewis Freeman, Bob Burkhardt, Darrell Howard, Ed McDaniel, Elmer Oas, Bill Simpson, and Carl Nelson, manager.

The scores of the games were: Rogers frosh, 6, Cheney Jr. High School, 0; Rogers frosh, 25, West Valley frosh, 12; Rogers frosh, 38, N. C. frosh, 0; Rogers frosh, 13, L. C. frosh, 0.

The Freshman football team of this year was, in many respects, the most exceptional in the history of the school. Outstanding men on the squad were Liberty, Tortorelli, Akins, Burkhardt, and Stansbury.

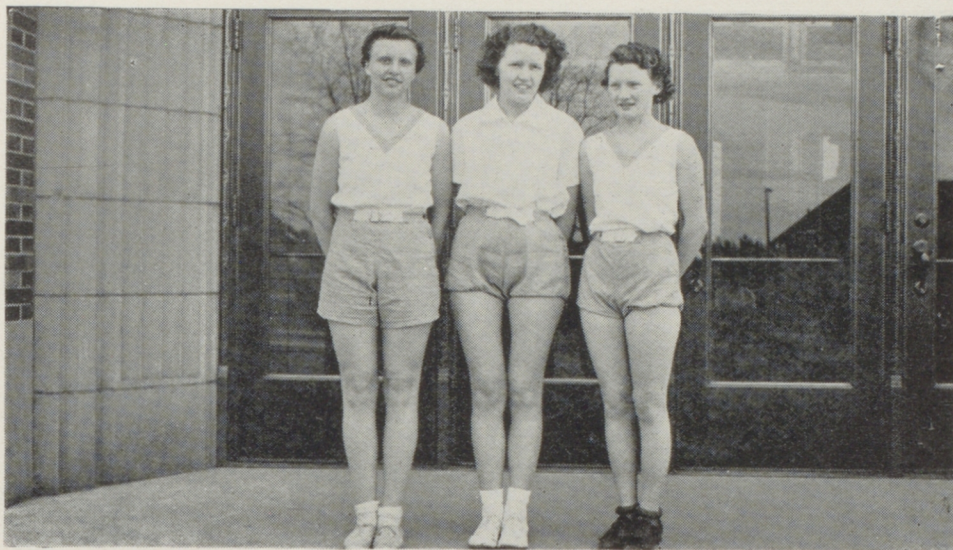

BASEBALL

I. R. Minzel, Coach

The freshman baseball team plays games with all high schools, junior high schools, and some grade schools.

Members of the squad were: Toddy Grant, La Verne Marrier, Earl Hardy, Billy Dalgren, Paul McCulloch, Bob Kroske, Don Innes, Don McDavis, Ed Reynolds, Bruce McKenzie, Ray Rich, Francis McLaughlin, Marvin Rich, Dale Roper, Gilbert Miller, Jerry McGuire, Joe McBreen, Elmer Oas, and Benny Oberg.

The primary purpose of organizing freshmen teams is for the purpose of encouraging and bringing out the boys who can be used later in varsity competition for practical training.

Massie, Larson, Johnson.

Girls' Posture Contest

The first of the Spokane schools to undertake such a program, the girls' physical education department at Rogers conducted an all-school posture contest under the supervision of Miss LaVelle Barger.

Judges awarded first place to Betty Massie, 12A, who ranked highest as to posture and general health. Astri Larson and Betty Johnson, also 12A's, received second and third places, respectively.

Every girl enrolled in gym was judged for posture by various faculty members, and one or two were chosen from each class to participate in the finals. These finalists also received an examination by the school nurse, Miss Wealthy Ann Robinson. The final checkup was made by outside judges, namely, Mrs. O. O. Heaton, head of the department of health for the Spokane Central Council of P.-T. A., Miss Ethel Harbin, instructor of physical education at the Longfellow grade school and Miss Wealthy Ann Robinson.

In addition to the winners, the following girls were nearly "posture-perfect" and took part in the finals: Roxie Ralph, Thelma Carson, Pearl Mary Copeland, Jane Hill, Emojane Haywood, Helen Miller, Phoebe Brooks, Hazel Strand, Betty DeLong, Irene Corkrum, Marie Strasser, and Alice Hamaker.

The Girls' Athletic Club were co-sponsors of the program, and the success of the first contests warrants its becoming an annual event.

Queens of Spring Sports

Spring Sports received a royal send-off when fifteen school organizations and their candidates for "Queen of Spring Sports" launched their ticket-selling campaign. The close of the contest found that Vonda McMullan, the Journalism department candidate, and Betty Johnson, candidate of the Harding Debate Club, tied for first honors, both having 9400 points.

The coronations of the queens and their maids of honor was held Friday morning, April 26, at a special convocation. Vonda was crowned Queen of Baseball by a member of the baseball team, with La Rayne Coulson of the "R" club as maid of honor. Betty was crowned "Queen of Track" by a member of the track team with Eleanor Jinnett of the Junior Dramatic Club as maid of honor.

Little Joanne Loughlin and Barbara Babcock were crown bearers. The contest winners were presented with boxes of candy by M. J. Benjamin, contest director.

The contest was under the sponsorship of the physical education department. A total of over 550 tickets were sold, the largest sale ever made of season tickets at Rogers. Each contestant was assisted in her sale of tickets by club members and a manager.

In addition to the winners the following girls and their club sponsor aided: Maxine Cumming, G. A. C., Denise Johnson, Montero club; Helen Schindler, Spanish club; Sarah Fjelstad, French club; Virginia Storm, German club; Mary Rubright, Footlights club; Frances Wilson, Cosmic club; Velva Gay Eller, Math club; Grace Walker, Art club; and Margaret Tews, Las Gitanas.

Girls' Volleyball

Miss LaVelle Barger, Director

Under brisk competition afforded by the twelve other teams, the 11B's carried away first honors in girls volleyball this year, with eleven victories and one loss.

The volleyball turnout was the largest in the history of Rogers' gym classes, and games were played on the three courts erected in the gym during the volleyball season.

Miss La Velle Barger was assisted during the volleyball tournament by Miss Mabel Perkins, cadet from W. S. C. Members of the G. A. C. also helped referee and look after equipment.

Frances Wilson was captain of the winning team. The 11B's played consistently good volleyball all the way through and developed commendable team work. The team consisted of Margaret West, Roxie Ralph, Alta Abrams, Bessie Brown, Audrey Thorson, Lucille Murphy, Pauline Foster, Rosemary Shanks, Lucille Frazier, Virginia Richard, Bernice Vosholler, Betty Picton, Eloise Merklin, Blanche GrandBois, and Frances Wilson.

The 12B's were runners up, having lost two games. Those on the 12B team were: Vonda McMillan, captain, Dolly McGrath, Thea Mae Culverwell, Dorothy Bates, Betty Massie, Helen Linden, Maxine Cumming, Alice Barnes, Astri Larson, Nadine Ryan, Crystal Frank, and Rosie Moran.

Girls' Tumbling

Miss La Velle Barger, Director

Tumbling, one of the best "all round" sports, has become increasingly popular since its adoption into the girls' physical education program three years ago. Girls who tried out for tumbling were divided into two groups, beginners, and advanced. Each group met one night a week, and many attained a marked degree of skill in the various stunts, rolls, dives, handsprings, and headstands.

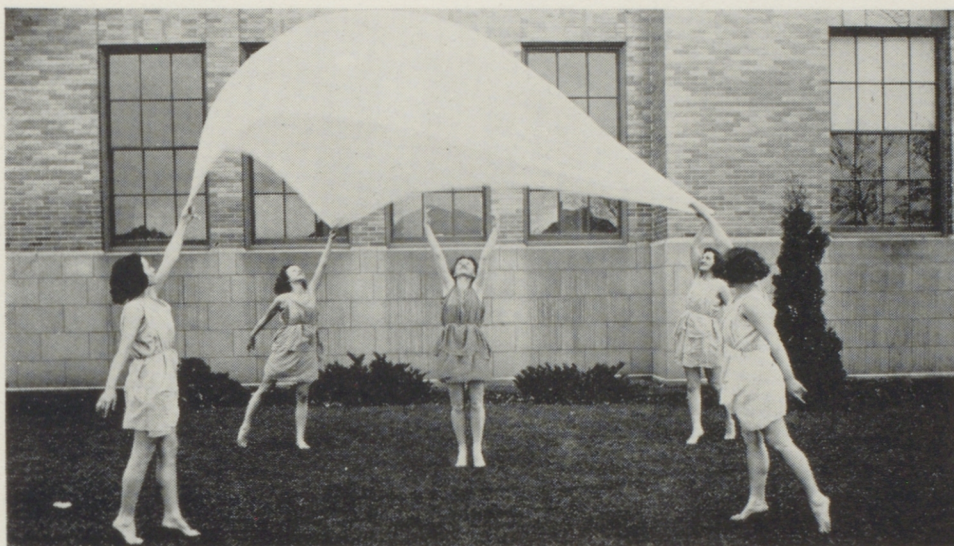

A tumbling team, composed of twelve of the advanced group, gave an exhibition at one of the basket ball games. Another attractive feature of the tumbling groups is that the girls receive 25 points toward their purple and white "R."

Those enrolled in the beginners' class were: Marian Bieberdorf, Julia Brown, Agnes Busher, Doris Culverwell, Thea Edmondson, Virginia Frye, Norma Hearn, Ila Hetherington, Iva Hetherington, Anita Hinshaw, Gail Hodgson, Elva Johnson, Denise Johnson, Margaret Juliano, and Helen Kelley.

June Ward, Hazel Zurlinden, Eva Kirk, Anna Hoffman, Dorothy Bates, Barbara Anderson, Genevieve Fuson, Pauline Foster, Loretta Hicks, Virginia Moser, Betty Massie, Dorothy Pruitt, Alma Ramey, Erma Rice, Hazel Strand, Audrey Thorson, and Catherine McDougall.

Members of the advanced class included Elsie Aune, Mary Burkhardt, Bessie Brown, Maxine Cumming, Dorothy Cooney, Ellen Dickover, Lorraine Felber, Vonda McMillan, Dolly McGrath, Eloise Merklin, Opal Mors, Violet Peterson, Maxine Rinear, Marian Renfro, Mary Kathryn True, Frances Wilson, Elsie Zerbst, Jerry Ambrose, and Thea Mae Culverwell.

Girls' Dancing

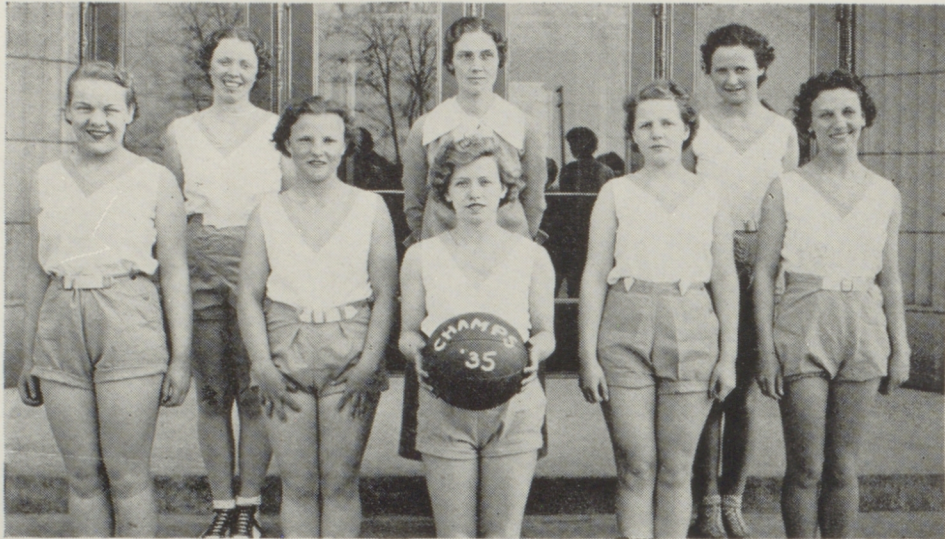

Miss LaVelle Barger—Director

Sports play an important part in physical education but many girls are becoming more and more enthusiastic followers of natural dancing. Natural dancing replaces the tap and character dancing during the second semester. This type of dancing teaches appreciation for music, poise, rhythm, and natural movements of the body.

The girls pictured here are doing a dance, entitled "The Surf Dance." The dance steps, which represent the waves of the ocean, were worked up for a meeting of the State Congress of the P.-T. A., May 15.

Girls enrolled in Miss Barger's dancing classes are Eleanor Bambino, Adeline Blackbird, Charlotte Brooks, Virginia Chapin, Edythe Colony, Betty Cowan, Phyllis Davis, Mary Dipel, Jean Eslick, Hallie Ethridge, Kathryn Faggetter, Ella Gorremans, Jane Hill, Loretta Huneke, Helen Kelley, Hazel Mael, Mary Kirkpatrick, Ruth Orr, Verna Presley, Alma Ramey, Lois Rhode, Myrtle Schalike, Geraldine Shaw, Vida Pinkerton, Vanera Shaw, Anna Kapel, Louise Madison, Florence Mosby, Lillian Moser, Virginia Moser, Arlene Nelson, Clara Spooner, Carula Stahl, Alvera Torgerson, Elsie Timerson, Lenora Weber, Maxine Wittsack, Peggy Whitford, Ivie Wunderlick, La Verne Madison, Dorothy Ruark, Addie Glayzer, Margaret Beedle, Jeanne Blodgett, Hazel Clark, Elaine Cook, Betty Foster, Pauline Foster, Hazel Gumm, Leah Jacques, Evelyn Juliano, Elnora Stahl, Vivian Sullinger, Audrey Thorson, Jane Conner, Lois Perkins, and Lenore Lincecum.

Girls' basketball tournaments created much interest in Girls' sports this spring. Velda Gumm, a member of the G. A. C., was the general manager of the tournaments which were held under the supervision of Miss La Velle Barger, Girls' Athletic director. Members of the G. A. C. officiated at the games.

A turn-out of 170 girls from every class in the school made up a total of 16 teams.

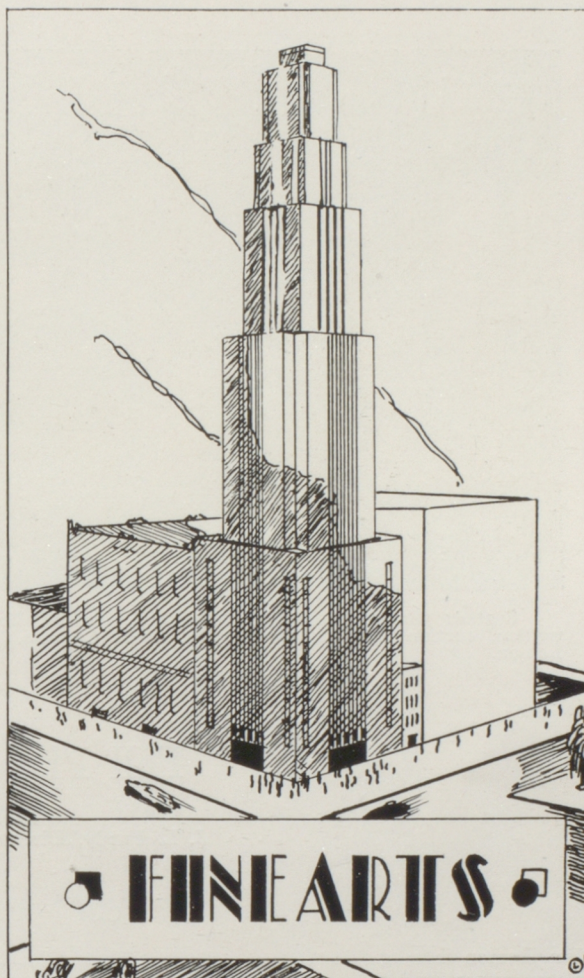

Because of the large turn-out of girls from some of the classes it was necessary to make up more than one team for those classes. These teams were ranked as one, two, and three teams.

After fifteen undefeated games, the 12A one team won the championship for the second time in succession. They also won second place when they were 10A's.

Each girl has a chance to earn points toward getting a letter by playing a required number of games.

Members of a regular team receive 50 points for playing 50 per cent of the games and their captains receive 75 points.

Members of the championship team receive 75 points and their captain receives 100 points.

"Nothing But the Truth," the well-known farce comedy by James Montgomery, was presented January 12 with the assistance of the orchestra under Glenn B. Starr.

The selection of the play was fortunate, and its sparkling lines and ready wit kept the audience bubbling with mirth throughout the entire evening.

This production was considered one of the most elaborate ever to be presented on Rogers' stage. It consisted of two box sets, one a modern office in a New York skyscraper and the second and third acts were in a summer home completely furnished with modernistic furniture and finished in black, white, and silver.

The story was based on Bob Bennett's ability to tell "nothing but the truth" for 24 hours. The embarrassing situations that follow made this farce comedy one of the most laughable stage shows ever produced at Rogers and ably tested the ability of the actors and actresses.

"Arms and the Man," George Bernard Shaw's comedy drama, was presented April 12, with the help of Glenn B. Starr and the school orchestra, and attracted a capacity audience.

The story is laid in the household of a Bulgarian family during the uprisings in the Slavic States. It consisted of three acts, each with a different setting. Scenery used in the play was very realistic and added much to the production.

The lighting and sound effects helped greatly and the costumes were copied from original Bulgarian models.

Starting the season with but few experienced debaters, Coach E. R. Jinnett developed a team which won four out of six scheduled state debates. The debate question gave a large amount of worry to the debaters, because of its complications in meaning. The only debates lost were the debates against Lewis and Clark and North Central.

The team's schedule was as follows: Harrington at Rogers, Rogers at West Valley, Rogers at Lewis and Clark, and North Central at Rogers.

Extra practice was made possible by practice debates with Rockford, Tekoa, and Central Valley.

The members of the debate squad were Sarah Fjelstad, Helen Jean Merchant, Jack Clark, Delnore Hopkins, Mary Catherine True, Patricia Saltz, Edwardeen Mustard, Pearl Mary Copeland, Victor Diediker, Edgar Slawson, Keith Campbell, Laurin Dillon, Charles Treffry, Carne Haugan, Jerry Ambrose, and Gladys Stevens.

The high school orchestra has long been one of the most important of school activities. Great service is rendered to the school by this group in playing at convocations and other assemblies. It presented between the acts numbers at the fall play "Nothing But the Truth." At the spring play "Arms and the Man" it furnished the necessary atmosphere for such a production. In presenting the operetta, "The Lucky Jade," the orchestra was an important factor.

Besides playing incidental musical numbers for many programs, the orchestra worked into shape a complete concert which was given May 24. Before a student plays in the orchestra, he usually enrolls in the ensemble or beginners' orchestra for one year.

Champion athletic teams are urged on to victory by stirring songs and marches of the pep band. So it was at Rogers last fall in football season and this spring in basketball. In rain or shine these boys and girls were out on the sidelines at games booming out songs and yells with the rest of the student body.

To become a member of the band, a student usually enrolls first in the band instruments class. Here he learns the fundamentals of group playing. When sufficiently advanced, he is admitted to the large band.

Pep rallies and several pay convocations were brightened this year by the music of this group of students.

"Next fall a special marching unit will be organized in the department to furnish entertainment between halves," says Glenn B. Starr, director. "We will also have an all-girls pep band to take charge of the pep songs."

"The Lucky Jade," a modern musical comedy, written by Don Wilson and Harrison, was presented May 10 in the school auditorium.

The story is written about a trader who broke into an African temple and stole the jade ear of an idol. This jade stone, which possessed some magical powers, was in the keeping of the colored maid, Liza, and it caused much mystery and mirth. African voodoo and magic, beats of tom toms and wierd music were in evidence throughout the production.

The Lucky Jade was the first comic opera to be presented under the baton of Glenn B. Starr.

An entirely new system was used very successfully this year in the publication of the 1935 Treasure Chest. Since Journalism students were interested primarily, preference was given to members of the classes. In this way constant check was kept on the book's publication. Much extra work was avoided because of the helpful suggestions made by Mr. Green, Mr. Bates and Mr. Griffin, all of the North Central print shop.

Covey, Youngman, Walker, Ortner, Hopkins, Colony, Jinnett.

Interclass Speech

EFFECTIVE SPEAKING CONTEST

Under the direction of J. M. Tewinkel, the English department planned and directed an effective speaking contest in which every English student participated.

Seniors and Juniors spoke on topics of political and economic interests. They were: "The Place of the School in Crime Prevention," "Old Age Pensions," "The Value of the Coulee Dam to the Inland Empire," "Social Insurance," "What America Expects of the Educated Man," "How America Won Free Public Education," and "Tax on Intangible Values."

Freshmen and Sophomores chose their speeches from the following topics: "Books Are Friends, Let Us Read," "Why I Like to Live in Spokane," "A Worth While Hobby," and "The History of John R. Rogers High School."

Elimination contests were held in the English classes, the teacher selecting the best from each class. Semi-finals were held for both the underclassmen and the upperclassmen. At two special convocations, the contestants gave their speeches and judges from outside the school voted for the best speeches.

At the Junior and Senior assembly, Grace Walker was awarded first prize, three dollars; Elizabeth Covey, second, two dollars; while Bessie Ray and Florence Youngman tied for third place.

At the under classmen's convocation, Juanita Hopkins was first; Edythe Colony, second; and Eleanor Jinnett, third.

This year was the first time such a contest had ever been staged at Rogers, and it was considered outstandingly successful.

INTERCLASS DEBATE

IIB WINNING TEAM

Juanita Hopkins First Speaker
Jerry Ambrose Second Speaker

The interclass debates under the sponsorship of the Harding Debate Club brought to light a considerable amount of formerly unknown talent. Competition was extremely keen among all the class teams. At the final debate held at a special convocation, the eleven B team outtalked the nine A team. Special pins were presented to the winners.

Mrs. Iva Morrison who arranged the debates voiced her strong approval of the debates and their results.

Brown, Poffenroth, Steele, and Ramey were powerful ground gainers. Ramey's punting was a feature of the game. Uprichard and Nyberg were the Tiger standouts.

SECOND NORTH CENTRAL GAME

In this game Rogers had its first chance in the history of the school to win the City Championship before the season had ended. The team was out to win it with heart and soul and they had to exert themselves to the utmost to down the powerful Indian eleven. The Pirates finally smashed out another 7-6 victory over the Indians, and the team realized that their dream of a City Championship had become a reality.

The first half resulted in a punting duel with Ramey of Rogers having the advantage. North Central then tasted Pirate blood in the third quarter after they had completed a long pass to Rogers' three-yard line. Contos then plunged across for the counter. At this juncture a fighting-mad Pirate juggernaut swept down the field to a touchdown and a conversion by Perry. This score placed Rogers ahead, 7-6. As the game ended in Rogers' favor, the ball was on North Central's one foot line.

For Rogers, Ramey, Brown, Perry, S. Tortorelli, Waldron, and Nelson played stellar ball. Contos, Ferrante, and Murphy were outstanding for the Indians.

KELLOGG GAME

After a hard but most successful season, the Pirate crew journeyed to Kellogg to chalk up another victory to the tune of 21-0. The second and third teams played three-fourths of this game and they showed up well. Gaining ground almost at will but unable to score, the fighting Pirates had to take to the air to defeat the stubborn Kellogg team. Rogers scored in every period but one. Poffenroth's passes to Ramey, and Perry's conversions after touchdowns were Rogers' highlights in the backfield. In the line, Ken Nelson, Steve Tortorelli, and R. Brown played superior ball.

SHRINE GAME

Rogers tasted defeat for the first time of the season at the hands of a heavier, faster team of Gonzaga in the Gonzaga stadium on November 12. It was a bitter battle from start to finish. The first half was scoreless. On the opening kickoff in the second half, Pupo of Gonzaga, made a spectacular run of 96 yards for a touchdown. A blocked punt which was recovered by Rogers on Gonzaga's five yard line resulted in a touchdown by Clint Brown. Neither team had converted their point after touchdown and the count stood at 6-6. In the closing minutes of the game, Blackbird flipped a pass to a receiver, and it resulted in a touchdown. The game ended with the score 12-6 in Gonzaga's favor. This game did not affect Rogers' hold on the City Championship, as the crown was won when the team defeated N. C. for the second time.

For the first time in the history of Rogers sports, the football squad took a long journey to play a Turkey Day Game at Helena, Montana. Although the Pirates were scored upon in the first few minutes of play, Rogers set to work and scored twice. The game ended 14-7 in Rogers' favor. This victory was a grand one because Coach Benjamin's boys were in a distant city and everybody at Helena admired them for their splendid sportsmanship and fighting spirit. The entire Rogers team played a good brand of ball and thus ended a most successful season.

Those given letters were: Second year: Mike Perry, Dodge Dean, Steve Tortorelli, and Al Poffenroth. First year awards were given to: Clint Brown, Ralph Brown, Jerry Carson, Ted Dawson, Paul Ewing, Leo Haynes, Joe Judge, Al Lavender, Reg McDavis, Kenny Nelson, Cliff Nelson, Jack Ramey, Mike Shanks, Al Stokke, Charles Tortorelli, Harvey Taylor, and Duane Waldron.

*Through a technicality, two of the above games were declared forfeited at the end of the season by the State High School Athletic Association.

"The noive of dat guy," Kenny Nelson complained, "offern' me six dollars a week! Wot does 'e think I am—a college graduate?"

Raddas and Chet Quorn were her helpers. Woody Pfeffer filled the bill as head janitor and Frank Nicholson is still a P. G.

The school had offered me all the help it could, so I decided to look around town for the rest of my classmates.

On the corner of Howard and Riverside I saw Frances Littell and Willis Angel talking so heatedly I hated to interrupt. Louis Cameron and Thurman Cook were wrapped up in themselves as usual.

As a circus was in town I decided to attend it. I was immensely surprised to find Walt Barnes as the strong man, with Bob Barnes as his helper. Bob Bithell was ticket taker—(still after the money.)

Alice Caryl and Doris Casey as spectacular trapeze artists were performing, with Earl Case assisting Elizabeth Covey riding elephants.

Eldwin Colony and George Threlkeld were almost funny in the role of clowns.

After leaving the big top I went and bought a hot dog from Gilbert Johnson at a near-by stand. Maynard Hunt was special mustard supplier. Delnore Hopkins was strolling nonchalantly by with her arm linked in Eloise Henderson's. As I was passing along Fourth Avenue, I saw a gang coming out of the skating rink. Among them were: Anna Marie Bury, Walter Fisher, Ewing Irwin, Horace Longanecker, Doris Parker, Naomi Peters, Taylor Richard, Eugene Richardson, Eva Schumacher, Arnola Setser, Earl Sanford, Jack Simonson, Eva Wood. They had just had a good old get-together to remind them of sneak day.

Marjorie Hamaker and Louada Harris were just going into the Mandarin for chili.

A cry of exultation came to my lips for there standing on a remote corner stood the one remaining school friend I had to find—Lynn Drake.

The next morning I met Paul Hanneman bright and early to tell him of my wonderful success in rounding up my class mates.

My spirits were soon dampened however when he said, "Oh, yes, that's splendid of you, but I've decided not to produce the picture."

Needless to say it took me several weeks to recover from the nervous shock and a grand desire to kill—ahem—.

There were some very crooked people at a bridge game last night.

Bob De La Grange: One of us is a cheat.

Virginia Chambers: What do you mean?

Bob: Five minutes ago I had a fifth ace in my boot top, and now it is gone.

Virginia Gilbert: Oh, I adore that funny little step of yours. Where did you get it?

Gene Coe: Funny, nothing! My suspenders are busted.

"Now I've got you in my grip," cried Don McDavis as he thrust his toothbrush into his valise (suitcase to you ignorant people.)

strength, but as the second half of the season started he was taken ill with scarlet fever and so was lost for the rest of the season. Ken Nelson helped the team a great deal with his height and fighting spirit. Kenny is one of the few players who has college possibilities.

Two men back for next season are Al Poffenroth, who played consistent ball, and Ralph Brown, who also played a scrappy game. He lacked confidence on his shots this season but should be a leading scorer before his varsity competition is through.

One of the unusual coincidences of the Pirate squad this year was the necessity of three of the players to wear cages to protect their glasses.

Vonda McMillan: Teacher, I'm not prepared. The lights went out at our house last night.

Mr. Becher: Why didn't you send him home?

Don't worry if your job is small,

Was once a nut like you.

Bill Campbell: Why do you always look out the window in a street car?

Franklin Jaynes: I just can't bear to see a lady standing in the aisle.

"All of me."

"Why did you leave Russia?"

"Because I couldn't bring it with me."

"Where were your forefathers born?"

"I've only got one father."

"Where's Washington?"

"He's dead."

"I mean the capital of the United States."

"They loaned it all to Europe."

"Now do you promise to support the Constitution?"

"How can I? I've got a wife and six kids to support."

Thelma Carson: When you were in Hawaii did you dance on the beach at Waikiki?

Art Charles: Yes, and it was so strewn with broken bottles, I cut both my feet and had to go to a hospital.

Dolly McGrath: Now what are you stopping for?

Tuffy Diedrick (as car comes to halt): I have lost my bearings.

Dolly: Well, at least you are original. Most fellows run out of gas!

Nellie Betts: If I have talked too long, it's because I haven't a watch with me, and there is no clock in this auditorium.

Voice from the gallery: There's a calendar behind you.

Mr. Minzel entered the lobby of a hotel and placed his umbrella in the stand, but before going upstairs tied to the umbrella a card on which he had written:

"This umbrella belongs to a champion wrestler. Back in ten minutes."

In twenty minutes he returned, but the umbrella was gone. The card, however, was still there, and on it Walt Anderson had written:

"Umbrella taken by champion long distance runner. Won't be back at all."

Jim Hurd was talking to a neighbor over a back yard fence. "We're going to be living in a better locality soon," he said. "We're moving."

"We're going to live in a better neighborhood too," replied Al Stokke.

Jim: "How come, you movin' too?"

Miss Herbert: A good deal depends upon the formation of early habits.

Bill Foley: You said it. When I was a baby my mother paid a woman to wheel me around. I've been pushed for money ever since!

Ray Oman: When I go to Heaven, I'm going to ask Shakespeare whether or not he wrote all those plays.

Bob Epler: Maybe he won't be there.

Ray: Then you ask him.

Mr. Eaman: And can anyone tell me what thought passed through Sir Isaac Newton's head when the apple fell on it?

Bob Dunn: Glad it was not a brick.

Miss Swann: Bill, if you do't behave I'll have to send a note home to your father.

Bill Newell: You better not, Ma's as jealous as a cat.

FRESHIES' PRAYER

I want to be a senior, and with the seniors stand;
With a fountain pen behind my ear, and a notebook in my hand.
I wouldn't be a president, I wouldn't be a king,
I wouldn't be an emperor, for that wealth could bring,
I wouldn't be an angel, for angels have to sing,
I'd rather be a SENIOR, and never do a thing.
Amen.

Astri Larson: Honey, don't you just ADORE those chimes? So wonderful, so thrilling, so wonderful!

Joe Karle: You'll have to speak a little louder, dear, I can't hear what you are saying for the noise those darn bells are making.

Joe Wolferman (from the stage, in an excited voice): Is there a doctor in the audience?

Voice in Audience: Yes, right here.

Joe: Well, how are you enjoying the show, doctor?

Miss Herrington: Why did you place that alarm clock besides that pan of dough, Bill?

Bill Steele: So the dough would know what time to rise.

The editor of the Record thought that the staff was talking behind his back so he moved his desk around. Now he faces us with his back to the wall.

Dot Bates (last football season): Look,
Lewis and Clark is going to kick off!

Bill Bangs: Heck, they've been dead for years.

Policeman: Mr. Doolittle, you witnessed the accident? What was the license number of the wrecked car?

Mr. Doolittle: I don't remember exactly, but I noticed that if it were squared, the cube root would equal the sum of the digits reversed.

Henry Freeman: A fellow gave me a note saying that he would kill me if I didn't leave his girl alone.

La June Hearn: You had better do it.

Henry: Now I am in a heck of a fix. He didn't say who he was.

"Do all students weep when commencement day comes?" said the small boy when he saw John Bergman crying.

"No," said the father, "SOME of them graduate."

George Shiosaki (radio bug): I picked up WGY last night.

Jerry Ambrose (auto bug): Wouldn't she give you her full name?

Man: You're an honest boy, but the money I lost was a $10 note.

Don Clarke: Yes, I know; I had it changed so you could give me a reward.

"Please tell me, Vern," directed the young lady teacher, "where shingles were first used?"

"I could ma'am," Vern Johnson replied in great embarrassment, "but I'd rather not."

Joe Whiting: Did the traffic cop bawl you out for blocking traffic?

Sister Whiting: No, he said it would give the pedestrians a chance to cross the street.

POEM OF A SAD STORY

Their meeting it was sudden,
 Their meeting is was sad;
 She sacrificed her sweet young life,
 'Twas all the life she had.
 She lies beneath the daisies fair,
 In peace she's resting now;
 Yes, there's always something doing
 When a freight train meets a cow.

SOME DIFFERENCE!

Frosh B: I feel rather queer. Something seems to be going around inside my head.

Frosh A: Don't worry. It won't stumble over anything.

"TIS SAD"

The worried cow might have lived till now
 If she'd only saved her breath;
 She was afraid the hay wouldn't last all day,
 So she choked herself to death!

Mr. Purdy was boasting about his hunting experiences.

"Well," he said, "the first bird I ever shot was a squirrel. The first time I hit him, I missed him altogether, and the next time I hit him, I hit him in the same place. Then I took a stone and knocked him off the tree and he fell into the water and was drowned.
 And that was the first time I ever shot a bird."

Bob Lane: When I look at you, it sets my brain on fire.

Ivy Wunderlick: I thought I smelled wood burning.

Carl Putnam: Heard the new sneezing song?

Doris Culverwell: No, what is it?

Put-Put: I took one look-kat-choo.
